

Teacher Protocol

- Teacher will give students their data one to two days before their conference
- Teacher will give students a scheduled time for their conference
- When student arrives to conference the teacher will greet the student
- The teacher will ask the student did they review their data
- Based on the student's answer

Student Protocol

- The student receives data one- two days before their conference
- The student will look over their data and come prepared to discuss
- *Come with questions and concerns
- Student will be given a scheduled time to come see the teacher
- Student will come over to the teacher, greet the teacher, and conference will begin
- Student will conference with teacher 5-8 minutes